

In memory of our esteemed senior boss and company founder,

Adolf Münchinger

Wood merchant

* 9 June 1936 † 21 January 2019

With entrepreneurial foresight, enormous creative power and comprehensive expertise, the deceased has been working on the development and expansion of his companies after becoming self-employed in 1961. He has made the Münchinger Group an internationally oriented player in the timber trade and has promoted the production of window scantlings of the highest quality.

As a born salesman and fair business partner, he always cultivated the best, often friendly contacts with his customers and suppliers. In addition to his family, his special care has always been given to his more than 160 employees.

His entrepreneurial legacy will always be our highest obligation. We will keep a respectful memory of our esteemed senior boss.
